

Youth and School Engagement Ideas – Richard

- Create “listening sessions” for students to hear what negative racial/social issues they experience
- Conduct a written, anonymous survey of the student body regarding human rights/racial issues in the schools/community
- Create problem/suggestion boxes throughout the school for student input and have a group meet periodically to address the issues/suggestions
 - ask HRIEC to set up a table at Freshman orientation or whenever the school’s club “expo” is done
 - Ask HRIEC to make a presentation at a P.T.A. meeting
 - Ask HRIEC to make presentation to district administration meeting
- Ask HRIEC to make presentation to BOE meeting
 - Create an “Equity Seekers” program where students sign a pledge (and receive a business sized card to carry with them) to seek equity in their school and promise to speak up when they see inequality happening around them

Youth Engagement Activities – Amanda

- Offer some engagement opportunities during Roseville student lunch hours (high school students), we could provide catering from Eat for Equity and have a quarterly conversation around contemporary issues/topics specific to the community.
- Offer a "Wake Up" conversation - also quarterly - where we bring a free breakfast into the high schools and offer up a free opportunity to discuss contemporary issues - or perhaps invite local speakers from different groups in the community.

- "In Real Life" style video program (that NineNorth could play - monthly?) - a dinner-style conversation where we bring 5 youth together - from different groups/backgrounds and discuss a contemporary issue. Maybe even include an elder in the community that they could ask questions to - or provide a different perspective.
