I am so happy that the city council is considering honoring Wear Orange Weekend -- which commemorates victims of gun violence -- many communities do this different ways a mayoral proclamation-- making their main street orange, Roseville could put something on the Oval sign acknowledging that we join many cities and mayors across the nation advocating for safer communities and supporting victims of gun violence.

At the next City Council meeting on Monday night a proposal for a proclamation for Wear Orange Weekend for June 4-5, 2022 will be brought forward. I urge you to support this proclamation. Wear Orange is a well-organized national organization that has raised awareness of gun violence and its impacts and united communities across the nation. It is time for Roseville to join this effort. Recent events in our community such as the February carjacking at Rosedale and the April Lake Owasso shooting incident require us to come together to educate ourselves and work on solutions. Citizens, the Mayor, City Council, Police Department, Schools, community agencies and faith-based organizations can all be involved. Please support the Wear Orange Proclamation at the meeting Monday night. I will see you there.

Dear Mayor Roe and Council Members,
Since I can't be at the meeting on May 23rd, I want to take this opportunity to add my voice to those who will be there in support of a resolution regarding Gun Violence Awareness Day. This resolution is a way for Roseville to acknowledge the toll gun violence takes on our state and our nation every day. It's a way to say we value a safer community - one that is safer for our children, our neighbors, and our public safety officers. According to the CDC, in an average year, 462 people in Minnesota die by guns. I hope you will resolve to recognize and honor those victims of gun violence each year by creating Gun Violence Awareness Day in Roseville.

Sincerely,
Sue Fite
