

2022-23 Essay/Art Contest Proposed Question

We are all part of a community and have shared basic human rights such as dignity, fairness, equality and respect. Many of us have not always felt that we are granted these rights as part of our community. Have you or your friends ever felt this way? If so, how?

Conversely, do you have examples from your school experience that demonstrate equity, inclusion and the promotion of these basic human rights toward fellow students? Based on your examples, what ideas do you have that would help everyone feel respected and accepted in Roseville?
