Northeast Section

2600 Civic Center Drive 1975-76

The former public service building to the northeast of the Civic Center was constructed in 1975. The building is a three-story structure with a flat roof and decorative cornices. The building is primarily made of concrete, with brick trim along the base. The interior is now used as office space. The building is an example of modernist architecture.

2750 County Road C 1925

This building was originally a warehouse and later a service station. It is a two-story structure with a flat roof and decorative cornices. The building is primarily made of concrete, with brick trim along the base. The interior is now used as office space. The building is an example of early 20th-century commercial architecture.

2900 Snelling Avenue South 1880's

This building was originally a warehouse and later a service station. It is a two-story structure with a flat roof and decorative cornices. The building is primarily made of concrete, with brick trim along the base. The interior is now used as office space. The building is an example of early 20th-century commercial architecture.

Southwest Section

2474 Hamline Ave. North 1912

This house was originally a warehouse and later a service station. It is a two-story structure with a flat roof and decorative cornices. The building is primarily made of concrete, with brick trim along the base. The interior is now used as office space. The building is an example of early 20th-century commercial architecture.

571 West Rosevalle Ave. 1915

This house was originally a warehouse and later a service station. It is a two-story structure with a flat roof and decorative cornices. The building is primarily made of concrete, with brick trim along the base. The interior is now used as office space. The building is an example of early 20th-century commercial architecture.

1827 Snelling Ave. Court 1920

This house was originally a warehouse and later a service station. It is a two-story structure with a flat roof and decorative cornices. The building is primarily made of concrete, with brick trim along the base. The interior is now used as office space. The building is an example of early 20th-century commercial architecture.

2073 Hamline Ave. North 1912

This house was originally a warehouse and later a service station. It is a two-story structure with a flat roof and decorative cornices. The building is primarily made of concrete, with brick trim along the base. The interior is now used as office space. The building is an example of early 20th-century commercial architecture.

1358 Skyler West 1909

This house was originally a warehouse and later a service station. It is a two-story structure with a flat roof and decorative cornices. The building is primarily made of concrete, with brick trim along the base. The interior is now used as office space. The building is an example of early 20th-century commercial architecture.

1942 Snelling Ave. Cour 1918

This house was originally a warehouse and later a service station. It is a two-story structure with a flat roof and decorative cornices. The building is primarily made of concrete, with brick trim along the base. The interior is now used as office space. The building is an example of early 20th-century commercial architecture.

945 West 110th Street 1894

This house was originally a warehouse and later a service station. It is a two-story structure with a flat roof and decorative cornices. The building is primarily made of concrete, with brick trim along the base. The interior is now used as office space. The building is an example of early 20th-century commercial architecture.

Northwest Section

2935 Old Highway 8 1910

This building was originally a warehouse and later a service station. It is a two-story structure with a flat roof and decorative cornices. The building is primarily made of concrete, with brick trim along the base. The interior is now used as office space. The building is an example of early 20th-century commercial architecture.

3300 Snelling Ave. 1860

This building was originally a warehouse and later a service station. It is a two-story structure with a flat roof and decorative cornices. The building is primarily made of concrete, with brick trim along the base. The interior is now used as office space. The building is an example of early 20th-century commercial architecture.

100 1959 1/2 Tactical Bldg. 1995

This building was originally a warehouse and later a service station. It is a two-story structure with a flat roof and decorative cornices. The building is primarily made of concrete, with brick trim along the base. The interior is now used as office space. The building is an example of early 20th-century commercial architecture.