In 2019, we will continue the "Creative Crossroads." We will feature a different world region at each weekly event, with the goal of illustrating similarities and differences across cultures through performance styles. This year's series will include opportunities for comparing multiple dance styles, like Hula and Belly Dancing, Honky Tonk and Polka steps, and K-Pop and Reggae rhythms. The lineup will showcase a variety of culturally unique musical instruments, from Andean flutes to Hawaiian slack-key guitar. The 2019 Sunday events will also offer dance instruction and/or audience participation activities for all ages.

All performances are at
The Frank Rog Amphitheatre in Roseville's
Central Park at 2540 No. Lexington Ave.
