

The Housing Decision

A three-part series to help you make an informed decision about moving into senior housing. Sponsored by Rsvl A/D and Wilder Community Center for Aging

Understanding Senior Housing Options

Part of the Dementia: Caring and Coping Series

Thursday, July 11, 1:00—3:00 at the Ramsey County Library—Roseville

Catherine Engstrom, caregiver consultant at the Wilder Foundation will give information about various senior housing options and how to evaluate them.

Tour a Facility

Thursday, July 25

Tour a senior housing facility to practice evaluating your options and learn from others about things to consider when looking. Only one facility can be toured. Must sign-up in advance. Call 651-280-2273 or email caregiving@wilder.org to sign up.

Schedule:

12:15—12:30 Meet in Ramsey County Library—Roseville lobby

12:30 Buses leave to tour facility. Facilities include:

- Lyngblomsten (Housing with Services and Care Center)
- Arthur's Senior Care, a Residential Care Home
- Cherrywood Pointe of Roseville at Lexington

2:00 Buses arrive back at library

2:00—3:00 Optional de-brief with others

Know Your Rights!

Part of the Dementia: Caring and Coping Series

Thursday, August 8, 1:00—3:00 at the Ramsey County Library—Roseville

A representative of the state's ombudsman for long-term care will speak about advocating for the rights of residents and caregivers in long-term care facilities.

Events Held At

Ramsey County Library—Roseville : 2180 Hamline Ave N, Roseville, MN 55113

Event funded, in part, by a Live Well at Home Grant from the Minnesota Department of Human Services

Amherst H. Wilder Foundation
Caregiver Services
650 Marshall Avenue
Saint Paul, MN 55104

caregiving@wilder.org
www.wilder.org/Caregiving
[facebook.com/
WilderCaregiverCommunity](https://facebook.com/WilderCaregiverCommunity)

AMHERST H.
WILDER
FOUNDATION
Here for good.