COMMISSIONERS

Roseville teens – here's your chance to shape the future

The City of Roseville is looking for high school students to volunteer as youth commissioners. We're looking for volunteers to serve on three commissions:

- Human Rights, Inclusion and Engagement Commission (HRIEC)
- Parks and Recreation Commission (P&R)
- Public Works, Environment and Transportation Commission (PWET)

We're looking for you to bring valuable teen perspective and help shape Roseville's future. You'll make connections and gain experience to help build your resume.

We are looking for students who live in Roseville and enrolled in high school. Home-schooled students are also encouraged to apply.

HRIEC meets the third Wednesday of the month, PWET meets the fourth Tuesday of the month and P&R meets the first Tuesday of the month. All commissions meet at 6:30 p.m. Learn about the commissions at www.cityofroseville.com/commissions.

Get an application at www.cityofroseville.com/commapp or call 651-792-7001.

Application deadline is Sept. 23, 2019.
